Understanding CRNS & Section Numbers

Section number definitions are effective Spring 2020 (202030) onwards as listed below.

A CRN is a 5 digit-Course Reference Number used to register for a specific section. CRNs that begin with the number 3 are offered in spring, the number 5 are offered in summer and 1 in the fall semesters.

CRN	Subject	Course Number	Section Number
32693	ACC	2301	251

The section number above is 251, for a course in spring semester and is not part of a special group since it does not have a letter represented.

CRN	Subject	Course Number	Section Number
17491	BLAW	2361	H02

The section number above is H02, for a course in fall semester that is restricted to Honors students.

CRN	Subject	Course Number	Section Number
52674	AT	5230	751

The section number above is 751, for a course in Summer II semester that is not part of a special group since it does not have a letter represented.

Semester	Number
Fall	001-250
Spring	251-500
Summer I (Parts of Terms 1, 31, 34, 41, 42. 51, and 81)	501-750
Summer II (Parts of Term 36, 39, 46, and 56)	751-999

Section Number With Letter	Used for Special Group
C	Correspondence
D	Continuing Ed Courses
H	Honors Program Section
J	Major Specific Sections (US 1100)
L	L for Labs LXX
N	NCBO/NCBM Developmental
P	Developmental Paired Courses
R	Residential College and Learning Community Sections
S	Study Abroad
T	TSIE – ESL Language
W	Pathway Program Specific Section (US1100)